

BV RESEARCH CENTRE AWARDS 2008

NOMINATIONS FOR THE IRVING FOX AWARD:

David Hatler (of Enderby, B.C.) is nominated for his contribution to the knowledge of sustainable management of wildlife in the Spatsizi Wilderness Provincial Park and its surroundings in northwest B.C.

Karen Price and David Daust (of Telkwa, B.C.) are nominated for their contribution to the knowledge of sustainable management of natural resources through promoting impartial monitoring of the effectiveness of land use plans.

NOMINATIONS FOR THE JIM POJAR AWARD:

Marten Geertsema, John Clague, Jim Schwab, and Stephen Evans are nominated for their 2006 paper entitled "An overview of recent large catastrophic landslides in northern British Columbia, Canada," published in the journal, Engineering Geology, volume 83, pages 120–143.

Marty Kranabetter, Rick Trowbridge, Anne Macadam, Donald McLennan, and Jodi Friesen are nominated for their 2002 paper entitled "*Ecological descriptions of pine mushroom (Tricholoma magnivelare) habitat and estimates of its extent in northwestern British Columbia.*" published in the journal, Forest Ecology and Management, volume 158, pages 249-261.

Ian Spooner, David Mazzucchi, Jerry Osborn, Robert Gilbert, and Isabelle Larocque are nominated for their 2002 paper entitled "A multi-proxy Holocene record of environmental change from the sediments of Skinny Lake, Iskut region, northern British Columbia, Canada." published in the Journal of Paleolimnology, volume 28, pages 419-431.